Col. and Mrs. F. E. Kellogg left on the noon train to-day for Kansas City where they will reside, says the Nevada Mail. Col. Kellogg recently purchased a handsome residence in that city and has remodeled it, making many splendid improvements which add to its comfort and appearance. In Nevada Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg were highly esteemed and their departure is sincerely regretted. In social, business and religious circles Col Kellogg will be missed. During their residence here they won many warm personal friends. The Mail hopes Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg will find their new home as pleasant as they hoped for, and also hopes that they will find time and a desire to visit Nevada quite often in the future.

GET THIS BEAUTIFUL COLORED PICTURE FREE.

Splendid Reproduction, In Six- teen Tints of a Celebrated Painting.

Every person who sends one dollar to pay for a year's subscription to the Twice-a-Week Republic, of St. Louis, Mo., and Farm Progress, will receive, absolutely free a beautiful colored picture, 24 by 32 inches in dimensions, entitled "The Departure of the Bride from the Home of Washington." This picture is a direct reproduction from the celebrated painting by Ferri. Sixteen colors were employed in the process. It is made on a fine, heavy paper, and will make, when framed and hung, a magnificent ornament for the home. Aside from its genuine artistic merits, it possesses an uncommon interest to every American, as the central figure in it is George Washington, standing at the portal of his Virginia home, bidding adieu to the bride and bridegroom. The color work is highly ornate and correct in every detail, as are the character representations, costumes, etc.

The Twice-a-week Republic is the oldest and best semi-weekly family paper in the country, and Farm Progress, which is also published by The Republic, is the fastest-growing farm monthly in America. Remember, that you get both of these splendid journals an entire year, and the beautiful big colored picture, all for one dollar.

Present subscribers may take advantage of this offer, by sending a dollar and having their time marked up a year. The Republic hereby gives notice that this offer may be withdrawn at any time, and those who wish the picture should send in subscription at once

Remit by post office or express money order, registered letter or bank draft. Do not send personal checks. Write names and addresses plainly, and address,
